Put your heart into your garden!

Petunia 'Surfinia Heartbeat' from Suntory is an adorable novelty -- white flowers with a pattern of pink hearts. The hearts grow with love, care and adequate fertilizer. Plants have a tidy, compact, mounding and trailing habit, and are weather tolerant.

Charming in hanging baskets, containers and window boxes. This new variety is perfect for a Mother's Day gift for that special someone!

Let's Try Something New With Flowering Shrubs...!

You have probably got some flowering shrubs planted in your yard, which is to be expected. (If you don't have anything planted in your yard, we need to talk.)

What's not so expected is flowering shrubs on your deck or patio. Annuals are nice, but maybe your planters could use something a little bigger, too. Or something evergreen, even. After all, many of us are outside on our decks year-round. By all of us, I mean my husband, who grills twelve months of the year. I think having some evergreens on the deck to keep him company while he grills my Valentine's Day dinner is very thoughtful of me! Make sure you keep in mind size and zone of your flowering or evergreen shrub...especially if you plan on keeping it in the container over winter! At Moyer's, we can help you design a container and even plant it up for you with seasonal refreshes. This is the perfect way to add a few more garden favorites to your yard, even if you've run out of space in the landscape.
